Brown Hands, Black Schools Poem
Written by: Latoya Turner

Brown Hands,
Black Schools,
HBCUs are cool.
Black and brown boys and girls,
Can go to college and feel joy.
ALL are welcome, can't you see,
That's right, even me.
Study, learn, and have fun,
Don't give up, get it done.
At HBCUs, we rep our school,
For me, it's _____ (CSU).

HBCU stands for _____.

HBCUs are important because _____

One thing I still want to learn about HBCUs is _____

Bonus Activity: Work with a partner or your small group to create your own hand game to go with the poem!
