

ADOPT A CLASS

UNCOVERING PASSION. EXPLORING POTENTIAL.

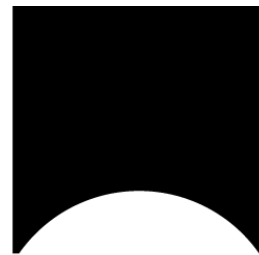

Adopt A Class recognizes the unique nature of this school year! In a year when we've been so limited with programming, please take advantage of the virtual field trip opportunities we've compiled for you. While an in-person field trip to your office is the most ideal and can be the most impactful, due to COVID-19, this year that is just not possible. Since that is the case this year, your team can bring a virtual field trip OR an experiential activity to the classroom.

We've collected a resource list of organizations across the region that offer a variety of virtual field trips options. Please feel free to do more than one field trip with your students - the opportunities for virtual field trips for the remainder of the year are unlimited so plan more than one for your mentoring sessions using the options below. Check out the list below and work with your teacher to determine the best kind of educational experience you can give your class!

Sincerely,
Sonya Fultz, Adopt A Class CEO

Cincinnati Museum Center

The Cincinnati Museum Center offers a wealth of FREE virtual and in-person field trips and experiences available to you! The programming opportunities are available via: Virtual Field Trips, Programs-on-Wheels, or Conversations with an Expert!

Museum Center

The virtual field trips are in-depth tours of CMC featured and permanent exhibits through video walk-throughs, expert interviews and immersive content on your schedule!

Bring the excitement of CMC to your location (in-person or virtually) with the Programs-on-Wheels. These engaging programs meet science and social studies state standards with options available for preschool through high school students.

Invite a CMC science or history curator or one of CMC's educators to a virtual conversation with your students! In our Conversations with an Expert you'll learn about their background, explore their research and get a detailed look at some of our fascinating collection objects.

Cincinnati Zoo

The Cincinnati Zoo has developed a number of virtual experiences available to you! The programming opportunities are available via: Zoo on the Move, Wild Chats, and Virtual Field Trips.

Financial assistance is available.

Zoo on the Move is a live, classroom-based, education program with a Zoo Educator. The Zoo Educator will lead students through the program and bring 1-2 animal ambassadors to show that relate to the chosen topic.

Wild Chats are hosted live by a Zoo Educator and include pre-recorded interviews with staff from around the Zoo. Teachers will be contacted before the program by an Educator to gather student questions that can then be answered during the Wild Chat.

Experience the Zoo in a whole new way! Virtual Field Trips allow you to choose your adventure from a selection of grade-specific topics. Each program package comes with themed videos of our Zoo animal residents in their habitats and a corresponding standards-based worksheet for students to complete.

CREATE YOUR OWN VIRTUAL FIELD TRIP!

Take a virtual field trip of your company! Give students a tour of where you typically work, introduce different staff members, talk about what you do everyday, how you do it, and why you do it! Adopt A Class is always happy to brainstorm ideas with you.

For many Adopters, creating your own virtual field trip specifically highlighting your company can seem like a rather daunting task. By following these guidelines, your work will be simplified. If you plan the virtual field trip properly, it can truly be a memorable and meaningful experience for everyone involved!
