

Our Team is Growing!

At Adopt A Class, we strive to make it possible for all students to have access to mentors that expose them to a breadth of life and career experiences in order to unleash their full potential. Do you know someone who shares a passion for our mission? Send them our way! We're currently hiring for two positions: Program Manager & Corporate Relationship Manager.

Applicants should contact CEO Sonya Fultz at sonya@aacmentors.org.

Virtual Training Opportunities!

Attn: New AAC Mentors!

If you or your team are new and have not been trained for the 2022-2023 school year, please select a time below to attend a virtual training lead by Erin Mullen, our Corporate Relationship Manager.

Field Trip Info!

Field Trip Webinar

Did you miss the Field Trip webinar led by AAC Program Manager, Courtney Burgdorf? No problem, we recorded it for you! Click the link below to watch and learn more on how to host a successful Adopt A Class field trip!

NEW: Adopt A Class Recommended Reads!

Adopt A Class is excited to share February's book recommendation & review! If you enjoy reading, follow along with us as we showcase some of our favorite books in our Blog Posts!

This month, Director of Operations, Katie Andress, read and reviewed The Other Wes Moore by Wes Moore. You can find the full review HERE!

Save the Dates & Reminders!

- February 15th- Virtual Training
- February 24th - Virtual Training
- February 25th - Xavier University Women's Basketball vs Marquette*

*REMINDER: Xavier University tickets must be for one caring adult and one student or any of our Adopt A Class team members and school contacts. Claim your tickets HERE and use promo code "ADOPT".

Celebrate Black History Month!

Join local author Latoya Turner for a FREE event at the National Underground Railroad Freedom Center on Sunday, February 19th from 12:00pm - 2:00pm. Ms. Turner will be reading her books Brown Hands, Black Schools and Brown Hands, White Sand. In addition to story time, guests can enjoy free entry to the museum for the day!